

OBJECTIVES

The event objectives are as follows:

- To give realistic exposure to the students involved in the aspect of automotive engineering and general product development.
- To test the student's creative thinking and robustness of technical knowledge understanding as this programme involves the application of both soft skills and classroom textbook theories at the real working experience.
- To search for prospective motorsport racers and engineers.
- To promote career and excellence in motorsport industry.